Commodore Pete Maxwell

What a Festive Joyous Month of December at TSC. Our neighbor The Toledo Zoo was lit for the season with thousands of lights, absolutely spectacular. The Giant Spruce acts as a Harbour Light Beacon to point us to our Great Club. So with that inspiration TSC was spruced up and decorated by our own eager, special Elves, Human shaped beings with Magical Powers. Many Thanks! Lady Carolyn and I attended Toledo Yacht Club Ball honoring Commodore Jan Kiel and Gentleman David. TYC is a Grand Historic Club up river. The OSU-Michigan party was very well attended with lots of food and drinks.

Decorated by Andy Parish and his crew, I can forecast a future in such party throw'n by him. Great Job! The Blue Gavel Dinner for the past Bluecoats and the current one, and their Ladies and Gentlemen was extremely well done. PC Scott Spencer and Lady Jodi set up a Whitehouse State Dinner with all the special touches. Bravo! Next was the children's Christmas Party. About 58 kiddos had breakfast with Santa, pictures and presents. A favourite party of many about 125 attending. Thanks PC Marc Snyder, PC Scott and the talented Lady Jodi. Also PC Jeff Sanford, Deb Woodbury and others for the breakfast! Special thanks to Santa who is so important to TSC Spring, Fall, and XMas! I saw many pictures of the Pub Crawl downtown, festive colours and outrageous attire. FC SS Stahl had the Uber Flotilla for the Crawlers. Where they go one-they usually go all. With this being lengthy, wishing all TSC and Families A Most Happy New Year 2020.

Harbour, Favourite and Colours are the Queens English spelling of those words in deference to my Mum and English family- Commodore Pete Maxwell and Lady Carolyn

Entertainment Report

Thank you to all of the people that came out to help decorate the club. We knew Thursday night was going to be difficult but with the way the club schedule went that was the only we could do. We really appreciate everyone that came and helped.

Thank you to Deb Woodbury and Barb Pflieger for the making the meeting dinners. There is a sign-up sheet at the club to help out with these and to get some hours.

Mark your calendars for New Years Eve. DJ Dre is going have us dancing into the new year. Admission is only $5 and there will be appetizers provided. As we are roaring in the "20's" it would be fun to dress Gatsby and there will be a champagne toast at midnight.

January 4 is the Three Kings White Elephant gift exchange. 6:00 PM will kick off the dinner of bake potato bar, chili bar and salad bar (3 food bars, 3 kings). If you want to participate in the white elephant gift exchange please bring 1 wrapped gift per person and that will start around 8:00 PM.

Watch your e-mail as there could be events added to help get through winter.

Fleet Captain Steve Stahl

Sunshine Report Mary Maenle

Former TSC member Charlie Smith passed away suddenly on December 19. I would like to wish is family and friends sympathy and this time of loss. Congratulations to Andy Parish who proposed to Alexia Rice and she said yes! Wishing you years of happiness!

Also congratulations to Deef on successfully getting through his last treatment!

Please keep all of our TSC family in your thoughts and prayers. We have members that are going through rough times and fighting poor health and good vibes coming their way certainly can't hurt.

If you have any items you would like to report, please contact me by the 21st of each month at memj0445@gmail.com so I can include your news in the Sunshine Report.

*Sincerely, Mary Maenle Sunshine Reporter
Please keep our TSC family in your prayers!*
